JUNE 2007

Bringing Worship to the Workplace

Leading Ladies

By Renee Prioleau

The month of June is a time of celebration for women. We remember the women in our lives; our mothers, grandmothers, aunts, sisters, spouses and special ladies that have made immeasurable and wonderful contributions to our total well-being. We even take the opportunity to reflect upon our own lives and our place in this world. In the church, there are many programs called "Women's Season" devoted to the spiritual development and celebration of women.

Recently, I was doing some more media research and made another interesting and entertaining discovery. In 1978, there were two ideas that were created in the same year, to celebrate the power of being a woman. One was a television commercial jingle for a perfume that talked about a woman's ability to, "bring home the bacon, fry it in the pan..." and the other was a popular song entitled "I'm Every Woman". The jingle and song became popular because it was a positive expression of the ability, gifts, and contributions of women in the workplace, home and society.

From God's perspective, who is she? Who is this woman? She is a woman who has ability, balance, character, divine purpose, discretion, and faith. She lives a lifestyle at work, home, church, and social engagements that reflect value, virtue, and victory. She is always growing in knowledge, understanding and wisdom, which can be applied in one's professional and personal life. This personal journey of growth and development is a divine call from God, and is important for women (actually, all of us). Everything in our lives leads us to the basics of godly purpose and power.

Who is she ? She is the woman of Proverbs 31. God has given all of us the potential and ability to cultivate the character of this female biblical figure. She was wise, trustworthy, industrious, a businesswoman, creative, talented, respected, diligent, courageous, feminine, possessed quiet strength, and peace. Above all, she lived for God ! What a great example and witness.

Even as we reflect on Reverend Watley's current lesson series on "Leadership", it is a good opportunity to focus on the role of women as leaders. Of course, the principle of leadership is universal for men and women. The Bible has given us great examples of leading women in the Old and New Testaments. We remember Ruth, Naomi, Esther, Lois, Eunice, Mary and even Rahab; who possessed the leadership trait of courage to take the risk and save God's servants from peril. And as the story was told, she became a part of the lineage that brought forth the seed of David, our savior, Jesus the Christ. She was in the right place, at the right time, doing the right thing for God according to His will and purpose.

We are learning some valuable lessons at Powerlunch that can be applied in the workplace. It is a powerful principle to grasp and understand that we can utilize positive leadership skills to make a difference on our jobs; what we accomplish and what we deposit into the lives of those with whom we work.
